YODA

parody of "YMCA" by Village People

Jedi! There's no need to feel down
I said: Jedi! Pick that box up from ground
I said: Jedi! And then throw it around
There's no need to be impatient

Jedi! There's a place you can fly
I said: Jedi! When your short in your time
You can go there, and I'm sure you will find a very good use-the-force-chrash-course

It's fun to stay at this YODA
It's fun to stay at this YODA
He'll show everything, what Jedi gonna need
And your hopes will be exceed
It's fun to stay at this YODA
It's fun to stay at this YODA
You have trust in the force
You believe in yourself
You can lift up things like a shelf

Jedi! Are you listening to me?
I said: Jedi! Matters your bleeding knee?
I said: Jedi! You'll be able to defeat
But you've got to know this one thing:

Vader, yeah be sure, he is your dad

I said: Jedi! I know this thought makes you mad
All will be shown, you by YODA
I'm sure this will help you one day

It's fun to stay at this YODA
It's fun to stay at this YODA
He'll show everything, what Jedi gonna need
And your hopes will be exceed
It's fun to stay at this YODA
It's fun to stay at this YODA
You have trust in the force
You believe in yourself
You can lift up things like a shelf

Jedi! I'll give you a lightsaber
I said: I teached, false the young Darth Vader
You will be trained, by the YODA
You have to blow Vader away

Jedi! You have to now believe me
I said: Jedi! I'd go down on my knees
If I wouldn't, be killed by Darth Vader
You have to compensate my faults.
